Drawing Days and Creative Tables

Drawing Days enable artists to get together for plein air painting or sketching in stunning locations such as the National Trust property Cotehele and The Garden House, and this year there's a special visit to the Monkey Sanctuary at Looe on Wed 5th June.

Creative Tables are a gathering of fellow artists who work alongside one another on their own creative projects whilst enjoying the company and a cup of coffee. There are regular Creative Tables in Plymouth and Tavistock as well as others in some wonderful venues on various dates throughout the year.
